GROTON COACH PRAISES THE YALE CREWS.

Abbott Surprised at Form Displayed by Blue Oarsmen.

M E. Abbott, rowing coach at Groton school, accompanied the Yale crew in the official launch on its trial spin on the New Haven harbor recently. Abbott was surprised at the advancement of the crew so early in the year. The crew, he said, is the equal or nearly the equal of the Leander crew which rowed at the Henley in England last year. He said he would not be sur-prised if Yale again defeated Harvard

The second crew also showed up splendidly, Mr. Abbott said.
Coach Nickalls is pushing two varsity eights into rowing form for their curtain raising event of the season, the races with the first and second boats of the University of Pennsylvania on the Schuylkill, April 3.

This is the first season in six years

University of Pennsylvania's first crew is now practically picked, Wiman, from the second boat, having been called to No. 3 since the retirement of Captair Denegre. The makeup will be as fol-lows: Stroke, Morse; No. 7, Low: No. 6, Cord Meyer; No. 5, Jim Sheldon; No. 4, Sturtevant; No. 3, Wiman; No. Bennitt; bow, Carl Coe; coxswain,

Only three of these oarsmen were in the first Yale shell last year—Seth Low, Jim Sheldon and Carl Coe. Yale second eight for the University of Pennsylvania races is somewhat unsettled, but is likely to be composed about as follows: Stroke, Adams; No. 5, Atkins; No. 6, Whittlesey; No. 5, Fox; No. 4, R. Walker; No. 3, Munson; No. 2, Gilfillan; bow, Crocker; coxswain, Pratt.

Two new racing shell will be added to the equipment of the Yale varsity erew this spring, according to an announcement by Coach Guy Nickalls on Saturday. One shell, built in England, is due next week, and the other, given by Col. C. L. F. Robinson of Hartford, swain, Pratt. to be built by Davy of Cambridge, will be ready for the Yale-Princeton-Cor-mell race in May.

"You will have to excuse me until Tuesday. The public appreciate our situation and will excuse our reticence

Powers listened to a volley of ques-tions, and then broke out as garru-lously as a busted talking machine,

A general round-up of "impressions" brought to the front the following facts: Kansas City will not listen to any money settlement. Indianapolis refuses to sell out to Newark and the league officials realize that it would be highly inadvisable to transfer the St. Louis club the only other member considered, even if Phil Ball and his associates would entertain any such proposition. Were the league to get out of St. Louis, one of its real big

SHAPE FOR BIG BOUT Willard Is Said to Be in Better Condition Than Johnson.

Jack Johnson and Jess Willard are rapidly rounding into shape for their championship bout on April 4. The big cowboy is in better physical condition than the champion, but this is due to the preliminary training he received at El Paso when it was thought the lously as a busted talking machine, "I am very sorry that I cannot talk at present. I can say nothing until the prosent. I can say nothing until the matter is settled" and that closed the interview.

But I would be staged at Juarez. But the big smoke is by no means in the poor condition that reports have creditionatter is settled" and that closed the interview.

with almost two weeks to work it off there is no reason why the champion should not be in as good physical condition as he was the day he wrested the title from Jim Jeffries.

Interest in the fight is keen. The training camps of both fighters are visited daily by crowds who are trying to get a line on both fighters. There is no racial feeling over the fight. No one speaks of a white man being pitted against a negro. Everyout of St. Louis, one of its real big league cities, it would be an admission of weakness that the Feds cannot now affoard to make.

They may try to shift St. Louis, but the 10-club league will probably here.
